

What are material issues?

Downer seeks to identify the issues that matter most to the business and

Changes from previous years

This year Downer has considered a broader list of material issues and used the materiality assessment process described to engage directly with a representative sample of stakeholders to rank and prioritise its material issues. This has resulted in Customer Expectations being included and Community Development excluded from Downer's material